

Person Centred Planning & Facilitation

This 2-day training programme will look into the ethos of Person Centred working and Person Centred Planning.

We will be looking at ways in which we can find out what is important to the people we support and ways to effectively and positively support that person to turn their ideas and aspirations into reality.

We will introduce the different tools that can support you when working with a person. We will look at the skills you need to have in order to become a successful facilitator.

This course will give participants an opportunity to:

- Recognise different communication styles and needs
- To adopt a person centred attitude
- To be able to demonstrate the use of Person Centred Planning tools
- Explore ways to work with others who have an important role within the person's life.

By the end of this course, participants will:

- Have a better understanding of person centred working and how to implement these approaches
- Know how to enable and support people to have choice and control when planning their lives
- Be able to successfully use Person Centred Planning tools to support them and the person they are working with to create a successful plan
